Interviews
To Develop a Global Perspective

---

- You will interview a person who has immigrated (moved to a new country in order to live there) to your area or whose parents did.
- This may be someone who came from a different country or from another state.
- In your interviews, ask the following questions:
  1. What is your full name?
  2. Where did you move from?
  3. Why did you or your parents move?
  4. What was hard about leaving your previous home?
  5. What things did you bring with you?
  6. What do you miss the most about your former home?
  7. What do you like about your new home?
  8. What did you have to change or adjust to in your new home?
- Do your best to get good, detailed answers from the person you are interviewing.
- You will describe your interviews to the class.
- Interviews and presentations are due _____.

How you will be graded:

- All 8 questions are answered thoroughly.
- Assignment is neat.
- Presentation is clear and informative.
