

The Day the Turkeys Joined Forces and Said, “No More”

Try to put yourselves in the turkey’s shoes! How would you feel about Thanksgiving? Would you feel like you were fed up? Why oh why so much persecution on the species? Imagine that one year, the turkeys joined together to fight this injustice. What would happen? Pretend you are a turkey and you have decided that enough is enough!

Story must contain:

- At least 500 words & proofread! Typed (12 pixel font, Times New Roman or Ariel, double-spaced)
- Make sure your story contains a hero (you) and a villain
- Paragraphs, correct spelling, and grammar
- The use of adjectives and adverbs (Make the reader “see”)
- Each of the five senses must be incorporated into your story.
- Detail when describing characters, settings, and things.
- Unusual and creative words; experiment with language (use a Thesaurus)
- Include a hook opening to get the reader interested.
- Try to affect the audience in some way. For example, if you were scared, make the reader feel your fear. If you were hurt, make the reader feel your pain. If you were excited, make the reader feel your excitement.

Due: _____